Critchleys Tax Consultancy

We are delighted to announce the expansion of Critchleys Tax Consultancy which provides tax planning and strategic advice for our clients, and creative tax solutions for them to help protect their wealth.

This goes beyond our continuing advisory service and provides strategic planning advice to clients, cutting across individual specialisms such as personal tax, corporate tax and VAT to identify the maximum value for them.

This group is fronted by Gerry Jackson Corporate Tax Partner, Steve Chamberlain Director of VAT Consultancy, Janice Parker Director of Personal Tax and Trust and Personal Tax and Trust Planning Partner Tim Keeley. Tim was a Tax Director at Tenon before joining Critchleys and headed up their Private Client team where he specialised in estate planning and international personal tax.

We work with various types of businesses - companies, charities, privately-owned organisations, entrepreneurs, family businesses, trusts, partnerships – and private individuals. We aim to meet their diverse needs by combining industry insight with technical expertise and imagination to find effective solutions. We already act for a number of other professional firms to supplement their tax advice both in the UK and overseas.

This new team will work closely with Critchleys Financial Planning to create products and solutions for our clients.
