CRITCHLEYS AND FRESH START

Friday 24 October 2008 Critchleys Agriculture Team attended the launch of the Oxfordshire Fresh Start Academy at the Common Leys Farm Campus which is part of Abingdon and Witney College.

Amongst those present were Denis Chamberlain, Chair of Fresh Start, Oxfordshire farmer David Christensen and The Rt Hon David Cameron MP who actually performed the opening ceremony. Bill Jestico and Louise Evans were pleased to represent the firm and to have the opportunity of not only meeting Mr Cameron but also discussing farming matters with other speakers. Critchleys was the only accountancy practice represented at the launch and we will be providing practical support to the young people taking part in the Fresh Start initiative by leading two of the monthly workshops over the coming year.

Fresh Start is an industry led initiative to encourage new entrants into farming as well as to help established farmers think about how they can develop their business or even plan their exit from the industry handing on to the next generation.

If you would like more information, please contact Gavin Colborne, the Oxfordshire Fresh Start Co-ordinator 01993 208153 or ourselves on 01235 553333 or agriculture@critchleys.co.uk
