

For Immediate Release

Launch of Critchleys HR

11 August 2009

July 2009 saw the launch of Critchleys HR.

Critchleys HR will offer a comprehensive HR advisory service to small businesses in Oxfordshire and the surrounding areas.

The service will be headed up by Fiona McClure who has worked in HR at a senior level across a variety of sectors including education, engineering, IT and retail. She is a Chartered Fellow of the Institute of Personnel and Development and holds a Masters Degree in Human Resource Management. With over 20 years' experience in delivering generalist HR support and a first degree in Business, Fiona ensures that clients are given practical solutions with a strong business focus.

The aim of Critchleys HR is to provide a personal, high quality and cost-effective HR advice service to companies who have typically fewer than 50 employees and do not employ an in-house HR specialist. Our HR team can support you in the management of your people, removing the hassles and giving you more time to focus on running your business.

Fiona has just been joined by Sian King who will be supporting her in delivering HR advice and support. She has over 13 years' experience of HR gained in a range of different industry sectors including advertising, retail, distribution and HR consultancy for SMEs.

Every month we will be offering a limited number of free HR Health Checks (worth £300) to all Critchleys clients.

If you want the peace of mind that a free review of your current employment documents and practices provides, please contact Fiona McClure or Sian King on 01865 261188, email info@critchleyshr.co.uk or visit our new website www.critchleyshr.co.uk
