Critchleys new charity consultant

Katharine Moss has joined as consultant to our Charity team. Until recently Kath chaired Mazars charity sector group where she was audit and advisory partner specialising in the charity sector. Kath is well placed to advise our clients on wider issues such as: governance, strategic planning and risk assessment.

Kath is also the trustee of an overseas AIDS charity, a non-trustee member of the Audit Committee of a national disability charity and a parent representative on the County Council's Aiming High for Disabled Children Programme Board.

Kath will be working closely with the rest of our Charity team to help us advise on wider issues and also run tailored training sessions for our clients

Kath commented "It is really important for charities to have appropriate strategic planning and processes for delivery of their objectives. I'm looking forward to working with the Critchleys team to provide advisory services to charities in Oxfordshire".

Robert Kirtland, Managing Partner added, "This is a significant appointment for Critchleys and reflects our on-going commitment to the Charity sector".
